Originaly establishe... Clafin is a full-line distributor of medical and surgical products sourced from over 500 regional, national and international suppliers. Originally established in the year 1817 as an apothecary, it is a credit to the dedication of our employees and customers that we continue to flourish after two centuries of business. We are extremely proud to be recognized by HIDA (Health Industry Distributors Association) as the oldest member firm in that venerable organization. Our company is equally proud to be designated as the healthcare distribution industry's first ISO 9002 Certified firm, which we achieved in February of 1998 and continues to be held to this day. ISO 9000 registration is the international standard of quality in process control and requires a sustained, audited program of improvement and documentation which is unmatched in our field.
